Si usted habla español, tenemos representantes que pueden asistirle en su idioma.

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (federal bank regulators) have required an Independent Foreclosure Review to identify customers who may have been financially injured as a result of errors, misrepresentations, or other deficiencies made during the foreclosure process. [REDACTED] records indicate that your loan may meet the initial criteria:

- Your mortgage loan was active in the foreclosure process between January 1, 2009 and December 31, 2010.
- The property was your primary residence.

If you believe that you may have been financially injured, you may submit a Request for Review Form for an Independent Foreclosure Review by a consultant outside of [REDACTED].

The Independent Foreclosure Review will not have an impact on your credit report or any other options you may pursue related to your foreclosure. If you filed a complaint about the foreclosure process prior to this independent review, you are still eligible to submit a Request for Review Form.

The Review Process

Step 1: Review the enclosed Request for Review Form.

The form describes examples of situations that may have led to financial injury during the foreclosure process.

Step 2: After reviewing the form, if you believe you may have been financially injured, complete and submit a Request for Review Form describing your situation.

Return the completed form using the enclosed prepaid envelope by April 30, 2012.

You will be sent an acknowledgement letter within one week after your request is received.

Step 3: Your request will be evaluated to confirm eligibility for the Independent Foreclosure Review.

If your request meets the eligibility requirements, it will be reviewed by an independent consultant.

Step 4: Your request will be reviewed to determine if financial injury occurred because of errors, misrepresentations, or other deficiencies in the foreclosure process.

████████████████████ will provide relevant documents along with any findings and recommendations related to your request for review to the independent consultant for review. ██ may be asked to clarify or confirm facts and disclose reasons for events that occurred related to the foreclosure process. You could be asked to provide additional information or documentation. Because the review process will be a thorough and complete examination of many details and documents, the review could take several months.

The Independent Foreclosure Review will determine if financial injury occurred as a result of errors, misrepresentations, or other deficiencies in the foreclosure process. You will receive a letter with the findings of the review and information about possible compensation or other remedy.

Your Request for Review Form must be postmarked no later than April 30, 2012.

Consent Order Details

Pursuant to enforcement actions issued on April 13, 2011, Wells Fargo acting on behalf of ██ signed a consent order with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC), the Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS) (independent bureaus of the U.S. Department of the Treasury), or the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. As part of this order, the mortgage servicer has hired an independent consultant to independently review certain residential foreclosure actions regarding individual borrowers.

██ or their affiliate must make all reasonable efforts to contact potentially affected customers to alert them of their opportunity to have their foreclosure action reviewed. The review will assess whether the customer incurred financial injury and should receive compensation or other remedy due to errors, misrepresentations, or other deficiencies in the foreclosure process during the period 1/1/2009 to 12/31/2010.
